

A photograph of a scientific detector assembly. On the left is a large cylindrical Photek 240 MCP-PMT. A yellow laser fiber runs horizontally across the middle. Above the fiber, a SiPM is mounted on a black cylindrical base. Below the fiber, a black beam splitter is mounted on a base. To the right, another black component is visible. The entire setup is on a metal plate with a copper-colored top section.

SiPM

Laser
Fiber

Photek 240
MCP-PMT

Beam Splitter